

Gold Junior Duke

During lockdown, things have to be adapted a little.

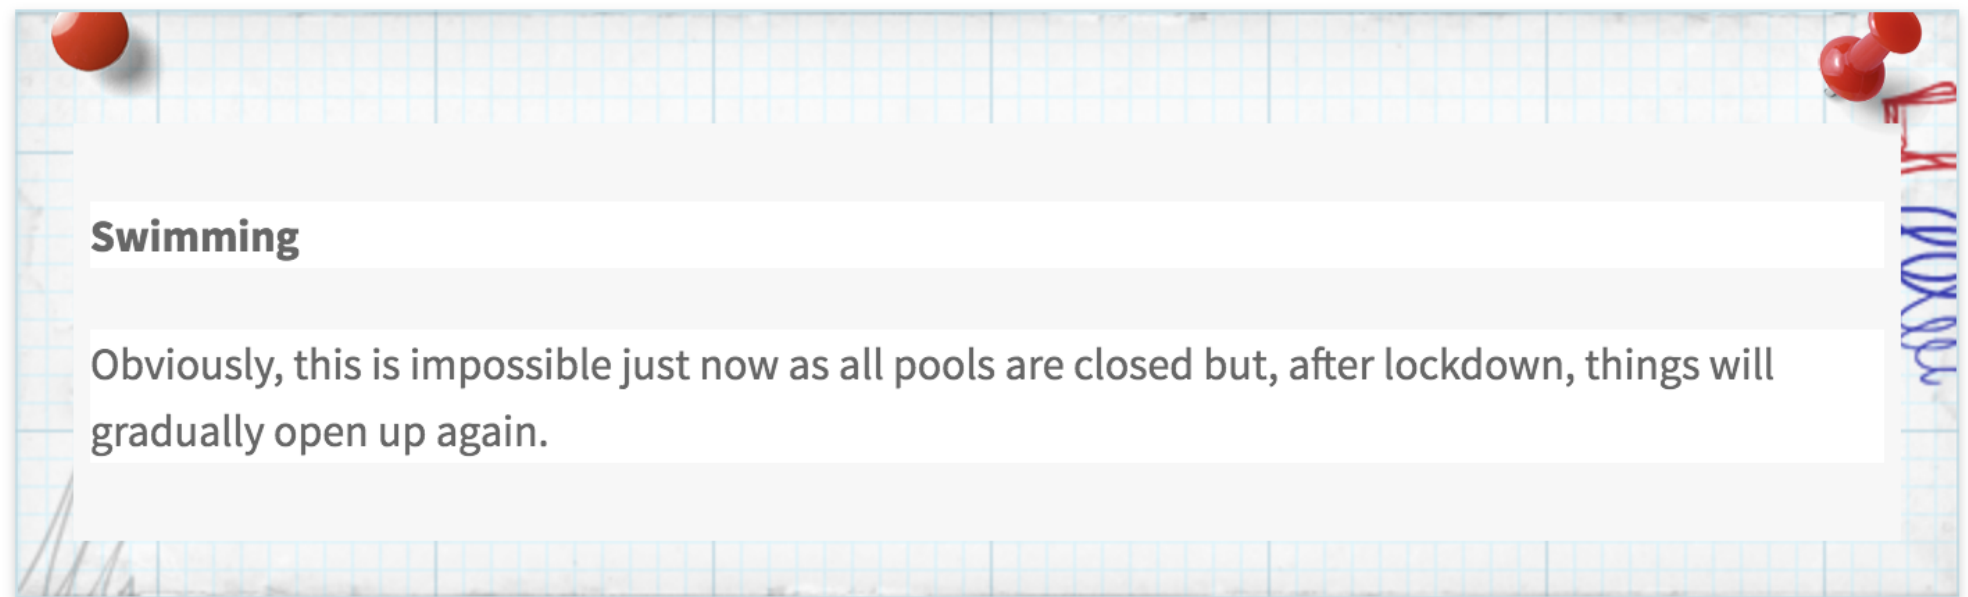

On this page, you will be able to keep teachers up to date with the challenges you have completed in your Gold Junior Duke Award. For each challenge, there is a 'check' box. If you mark each challenge as done, we will be able to see how many of them you have completed.

This is what we hope you will do:

- Complete a challenge
- Take photos as you go
- Write up the self assessment
- print the photos and stick them into your Junior Duke Journal
- take one photo of that challenge's double-page spread to attach as a file onto this task
- tick off the checklist for that particular challenge

Once you have completed all 7 of your chosen tasks, please email waughd@hutchesons.org so that we can keep a good record of who is to receive their certificates, Bonza Bonus Points and badges on our return to school.

If your parents use Twitter, a tweet @DukeAwards #juniorduke with your photos would be brilliant. Or if they are Instagram users, @dukeawards. Thank you.

Swimming

Obviously, this is impossible just now as all pools are closed but, after lockdown, things will gradually open up again.

Budgeting

As shopping is limited just now, this will be difficult until the lockdown rules are lifted.

Cookery

Baking bread (with yeast and kneading) is the perfect way to while away the hours during this time of self isolation. You won't be able to take a slice to the assessor at school but, with a good photo and a comment from a parent, we will take your parents' word that it's tasty!

First Aid

As we are not to go more than two miles from our houses at the moment, you will have to be creative with your 'adventure'! You will still have to think of various risks, take a first aid kit and carry it with you on your 'one walk of the day'.

Interest

You won't be able to be assessed on this by a teacher so we are trusting that your parents are strict puncture assessors! Take photos of each of the processes please.

ICT Skills

A PowerPoint is another great use of the time you have at home. Attaching your PowerPoint or slides of it would be ideal.

Music

As you have time on your hands, researching a composer and presenting your work well is a good use of time. You could even present it in a PowerPoint which would 'kill two birds with one stone', completing the ICT challenge at the same time. If you would rather perform a tune, please ask a parent to video your performance and email the link (they may have to upload it to Youtube and can choose their privacy settings).

Drama

Unfortunately we have no Infant class to visit just now! If you have a younger sibling, you could retell a favourite story to him or her. Remember not to use the book. However, using the time to make a recording that could be played to an infant class on our return to school will be even better. Email waughd@hutchesons.org to explain what you plan to record and make sure that you save it to a pendrive and keep it safe ready for when we get back to school.

Eco Challenge

If you have a garden, I hope you are spending a lot of time in it just now. I hope you are helping your parents to look after the garden and I look forward to seeing photos of your tree seedling.

Caring For Others

This is a great thing to do whilst self isolating. Take the time to learn how to knit or crochet. When we get back to school, I look forward to receiving your SQUARE (it must be a square of 20 x 20cm). You may have time to make a few so please bring them all as they will all be posted off to Africa.

☐ I have completed my Caring Challenge

Once you have completed seven of the ten challenges and attached the seven photos of the completed pages, email me: waughd@hutchesons.org to let me know you are finished. I will be able to check through your attachments and keep a record of your achievement for when we return to school. Congratulations!
